

June Praise and Prayer Newsletter

Edinboro Camp Friends,

Thank you so much for your support. We love knowing that there are people all over the world praying and supporting the work of Edinboro Camp. When we wake up in the morning, thinking about the tasks ahead of us, we know that there are people praying and supporting the camp. That allows us to face and conquer the challenges of the day. Thanks so much!

Praises: Summer Camp Registrations. About a week ago we did something that caused us to pause and thank God. We exceeded the number of registrations from last year before camp has begun. We will still add more campers in the coming weeks, but we have more than we had all of last year. This is a huge answer to prayer. Understand though, this is not because we are driven by numbers. This means more campers have the opportunity to get away from the ordinary and experience the extraordinary. Every registration we get is both an answer to prayer and a prayer request to pray for the camper. Lives are going to be changed, and we are excited to see what God is going to do!

Spring Projects. With the challenges living in Northwest PA, not too much building/maintenance is able to be completed in the winter. Therefore, spring has as many projects going on as the number of orange barrels on the highways (slight exaggeration). We have been busy fixing doors, getting lights to work, adding material to our driveway, painting railings, building a mezzanine in the youth tab, and cleaning everything! There have been many wonderful people who have given their time to make our camp safe, better, and beautiful. Thank you does not fully express our gratitude for all the people that have lent a helping hand lately. What a blessing!

Prayer Concerns: Summer Staff. We are really looking forward to how our extraordinary God will use our staff this summer. Our staff is what makes our camp special. We are always amazed at how God uses them to do His work. Please be praying for our staff this summer. We expect a lot on them, and they have a huge task ahead of them. At the conclusion of our staff training on June 1st at 2:00 p.m. we will have a prayer time for our staff and for our camp this summer. If you are available, please join us in the pavilion for this time of prayer.

Support. We rely on the support of our donors. Our desire is to have more and more people escape the ordinary and experience the extraordinary. That is why we need more supporters. Would you consider becoming a monthly donor?

You can sign up edinborocamp.org for a recurring donation. If you have any questions, we are here to help.
